in favor vote aye. Those opposed vote no. Voting aye.

CLERK: Senator Simpson voting aye.

SPEAKER: Have you all voted? The Clerk will record.

CLERK: 27 ayes, 7 nays.

SPEAKER: The amendment is adopted. Further amendments on the desk.

CLERK: I have none. All right. We are out of amendments. Senator Syas, what shall we do with the bill.

SENATOR SYAS: I think you know the arguments and everything, and if I am correct, Senator Mills was very nice and restricted the shoot...you have to shoot doves on the fly. OK. I'd move we advance the bill.

SPEAKER: Any further discussion? Senator Mahoney. Oh, you are voting already. I wasn't quite ready. All in favor of advancing the bill vote aye. Those opposed vote no. I will vote aye.

CLERK: Senator Simpson voting aye.

SPEAKER: Have you all voted? Have you all voted, except Duis? The Clerk will record.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 12 nays.

SPEAKER: The bill is advanced. The next bill is 325 by Senator Anderson. The Clerk will read the title.

CLERK: Mr. President, LB 325, introduced by Senator Anderson of the 37th District. Read title.

SPEAKER: Are there committee amendments?

CLERK: There appear to be committee amendments. Yes.

SPEAKER: Are they long?

CLERK: Yes, rather.

SPEAKER: Senator Anderson, are you prepared to take the committee amendments.

SENATOR ANDERSON: Mr. President, yes, I am.

SPEAKER: All right. Proceed.

SENATOR ANDERSON: This particular bill is the so called "open meetings" bill. We had a very lengthy public hearing on this thing, and at the public hearing, there were representatives of a number of organizations that either testified for, with reservations, or testified against expressing specific reservations about the bill. The Committee amendments were developed to take care of the reservations, the concerns that were brought up in the public hearing and I think that all of these amendments have been run back past the representatives of the various organizations that had problems that needed
